

Improving care and treatment for serving personnel, veterans and their families

Do you provide care for serving members of the armed forces, veterans or their families?

Do you know that sometimes their healthcare needs can be different to that of civilians and alternative NHS services may be available for them?

Do you know what the Armed Forces Covenant means to the way in which NHS care is delivered?

New e-learning available at www.e-lfh.org.uk/programmes/armedforces

