Notes for the guidance of Referees

The referee's report is an integral and important part of the selection process, and the information you give will help to guide admissions tutors in making their decisions. In order that institutions can evaluate an applicant's academic and intellectual capacity, your reference should, if possible cover:

- 1. Suitability for the course applied for.
- 2. Intellectual qualities including:

a) Development to date and previous examination performance with special reference to any factors which may in your opinion have adversely influenced the result;

- b) Present performance;
- c) Potential, including an assessment of the probable results of any pending examinations.
- 3. Personal qualities.
- 4. Career aspirations.
- 5. Athletic, social and other interests.

Mature Applicants

Referees may have difficulty in commenting on the Academic abilities of mature applicants who may not have any recent educational experience and in these circumstances, referees may wish to confine their comments to matters listed under 1, 2c, 3, 4 and 5 above.
