

Northumbria University
NEWCASTLE

Northumbria University Law School and
Department of Social Sciences
Frankenstein: A Multidisciplinary Conference
Thursday 14 June 2018

CONFERENCE TIMETABLE
08:45	REGISTRATION AND REFRESHMENTS Law School Boardroom
09:20	Opening remarks CCE-402
09:30	Annabel Frearson Imperial College	Frankenstein 2
10:00	Tony Ward Northumbria University	When Circumstances Lie: The Trial of Justine Moritz
10:30	Sarah Worgan Kingston University	'A creature unfit to remain in the society of men': Exploring the Human through Justine Moritz
11:00	REFRESHMENTS
11:30	Helen Rutherford and Clare Sandford-Couch Northumbria University	George Vass: the making - and un-making - of a monster

12.00	Julie Davies and Alice Diver Edge Hill University	The 'monstrous' prisoner: treatment, 'rights' and timely reminders on social control?
12.30	Sarah McFee Teesside University	Monsters and their Makers: Representations of Abnormality in Mary Shelley's Frankenstein
13.00	LUNCH
14.00	Mitchell Lynsey Leeds Beckett	Law's Monsters: The Reductive Framing of the 'Other' in International Discourse
14.30	David Ong Nottingham Trent University	What Mary Shelley's Frankenstein (1818) tells us about the relationship between science, technology, nature & the law
15.00	REFRESHMENTS
15.30	Alexander Maine Northumbria University	Titus Andronicus as a Representation of Law and Monstrosity
16.00	James Gray Northumbria University	Golems and Butter Knives: Cynthia Ozick and the Creative Impulse
16.30	Thanks and drinks	