5. Activities we process your personal data for and the lawful basis

Under Article 6 EU GDPR we must identify a basis for the "Lawfulness of processing" of our activities involving of your data. These are broadly described as: ‘Consent’, ‘Contract’, ‘Legal Obligation’, ‘Vital Interests’, ‘Public Interest (or Public Task)’ and ‘legitimate interests’.

Before you join us, your data is required for the following activities, which have been identified as necessary “for the performance of our contract with you” or in the case of potential partners, “in order to take steps prior to entering into a contract”.

- To register and respond to your enquiries, keep you informed about relevant subjects that you have expressed an interest in and to invite you to events.
- To receive, administer and assess your application, including: invites to assessment days, consideration of relevant declared criminal convictions (or acts of violence), DBS checks and panels, and consideration of your 'good standing' for professional programmes.
- For correspondence relating to your enquiry or application about any relevant associated events or services e.g. open days, student support, accommodation etc.
- Management and administration of your application and registration with University Accommodation services, including the provision of insurance and allocation of rooms.

These further activities have been identified as processing where it is “necessary for the purposes of the [legitimate interests] pursued by the controller” (us) or you, as an enquirer or applicant, or where you have “given consent to the processing of personal data for one or more specific purposes” which you can withdraw consent for or object to at any time.

- Direct mailing to enquirers/applicants and students in relation to benefits and opportunities offered by or through us, but that are not related to your applications or study:
  - University activities and events organised for students in relation to future opportunities.
  - Non-study or associated material we think might be of interest to you, for example information on the Students’ Union.
  - Surveys, feedback and similar communications.

- We may use your data to analyse monitor and evaluate our recruitment effectiveness or other performance and effectiveness in order to maintain and improve our services.

- We may seek your views directly through online questionnaires, invitations to participate in focus groups, telephone or other technology-based surveys. This may also require us engaging a third party to facilitate the work modes for primary research.

- Providing a more personalised user experience when using our website, applications or any other services, allowing us to target you with information we think you might be most relevant to you and your enquiries.

- We may analyse your social media interactions with us to potentially identify other people who may be interested in our services and our qualifications. No data about you is shared externally and this would only be used to provide targeted adverts about us.

Recording Telephone Calls

We may monitor or record phone calls to our admissions team or clearing line in case we need to resolve queries or issues and to help improve our quality of service. Conversations may also be monitored for staff training purposes. Where recording is used, we will keep you informed and will take appropriate measures to ensure that that sensitive data is not recorded.

Upon enrolling with us, you must accept the conditions of the ‘Handbook of Student Regulations”, which along with relevant University policies forms our “contract” with you.

- “the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party”; and/or

- “the performance of a task carried out … in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller” - namely our public task of delivering Higher Education.
Student and Applicant Privacy Notice

The following activities have been identified as necessary under either of the above:

• Academic administration, including: Registration, provision of study materials, timetabling, academic progress, facilitating professional placements, organising examinations, providing pastoral support, feedback, awards, and the production of transcripts and certificates.

• Administration of policies, including: Appeals, complaints, grievances, disciplinary and misconduct, including any non-compliance with accommodation ‘house rules’.

• Consideration of undeclared criminal convictions, acts of violence, or other relevant matters that become known to us during your studies which may lead to unsuitability for your programmes or placements.

• For the provision of IT Services, including: Accounts, email services, registration with third party systems, hosting of data with third party providers, monitoring of usage, and undertaking investigations in line with the IT Acceptable Use Policy.

• Providing access to, and managing your use of, University facilities and services, e.g. Smart Cards (including photographic image), building access, library membership, access to library systems, building access, car parking, sports facilities etc.

• Monitoring your engagement with learning and teaching activities and systems related to your studies (attendance, Virtual Learning Environment usage etc) to provide learning analytical support.

• Direct mailing in relation to activities related to your studies, including: student benefits and opportunities offered by or through us (or by relevant bodies) activities and events organised in relation to your studies, providing operational information (e.g. IT support, information about building closures etc) or facilitating surveys which we must provide to you as a Higher Education Body.

• Administration, support and delivery of your enrolled programme where the programme is though affiliated colleges, institutions and relevant partnerships, including those outside of the EEA. (NB. All other activities on this list apply to students at these establishments.)

• Processing applications for Access to Learning Fund (ALF) and/or consideration for eligibility for (and award of) the Reasonable Adjustments Access to Learning Fund (RALF).

• The operation of a lecture capture (recording) facility relating to the recording of educational activities e.g. lectures, by us (you will be asked for consent if you are to feature as the subject of the footage/audio).
Student and Applicant Privacy Notice

- Provision of information to external examiners, external reviewer or other relevant external parties required to provide comment or to participate on University convened groups e.g. external professional suitability panel members.

- Research and statistical analysis for internal reporting and review, for example, financial and strategic planning and to evidence compliance with legislation.

Data is also processed for the following activities, which have been identified as necessary “for us to comply with the law”:

- For monitoring compliance with and enforcement of relevant policies in relation to health and safety and security (prevention and detection of crime) - including the use of CCTV, and safeguarding.

- Monitoring attendance in compliance with UK Border Agency requirements and for meeting Professional Statutory Regulatory Bodies requirements.

- Production of statistical returns required for third party government bodies e.g. the Higher Education Statistics Agency, for completion of government supported surveys.

- To monitor and promote equality and diversity throughout the university. This may include the production of non-identifiable statistical data for analysis.

These further activities have been identified as processing where it is “necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller” (us) or you, as an enrolled student, or where you have “given consent to the processing of personal data for one or more specific purposes” which you can withdraw consent for or object to at any time.

- Administration of prizes, awards and scholarships, including those awarded by external bodies, with whom data may be shared.

- For the production of promotional material used by us and published on our website, in brochures.

- Provision of references to potential employers and other educational institutions.

- Administering and filming congregation ceremonies and the publication of awards lists (you must consent to appear in the published booklet).

- Register you with Newcastle or Gateshead City Councils for the purpose of confirming your exemption from payment of council tax. You will need to present your exemption certificate to the council who will use this data to confirm it is genuine. Without this data being provided, you would need to individually request us to verify you as a student.
Student and Applicant Privacy Notice

- Registering you with Northumbria Students Union so that you may access their support services. Please note data is shared under contract for this purpose only.

In addition to the lawful basis under Article 6, Article 9 requires an additional condition for processing "special categories ("Sensitive") of personal data" relating to racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or orientation. We process sensitive data only in the following ways:

- In relation to health or other matters in order to protect your vital interests, or those of another person, where you are physically or legally incapable of giving consent”.

- We will seek your explicit consent for the administration of Personal Extenuating Circumstances submissions and late approvals.

- We will seek your explicit consent for DSSR assessments, and the sharing of relevant information to enable reasonable adjustments to be facilitated.

- We will seek your explicit consent for registration with professional bodies related to, or as a requirement of your studies e.g. the NMC for nursing students.

- We may be required to provide data to external lawyers, auditors or insurers in respect of accidents occurring within the institution and where we need to seek advice and services in relation the “establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or whenever courts are acting in their judicial capacity”.

- We may refer students exhibiting health related concerns, “for the purposes of preventive or occupational medicine” where we feel that there is a duty of care to intervene and staff require advice from professional support services.

- Under Member (UK) State Law, processing may be required to assist police, local authorities, or other regulatory bodies for taxation purposes or pursuant to the prevention, detection or disclosure of a potential crime.

- Under Member (UK) State Law, processing may be required in compliance with national Safeguarding protocols in the event of concerns for your safety or wellbeing and wellbeing of our students and others.

- Under Member (UK) State Law, processing may be required in compliance with national ‘PREVENT’ duties.

- Under Member (UK) State Law, processing may be required in compliance with regulatory obligations, such as compliance with anti-money laundering laws and safeguarding requirements.

Please note that the above is not an exhaustive list. Additional processing activities associated with your engagement with us may be required in the event of requests made by a student, an outside agency or as a result of activities undertaken as part of our relationship with a student.

We will endeavour to seek consent to further process where applicable, otherwise processing will only occur where an additional lawful basis can be identified.

Photography

Photographs may be taken at our events for use in communications and marketing materials, including on our website and on social media channels. Where you are not the subject of the image, i.e. if it is a “group” or “crowd” photograph, we may use such images without requiring your consent, however, where you are the subject of the photograph, you will be asked to provide your explicit consent to use the image.

Notifications will be put up in and around these ‘open’ events to inform you when such photography is taking place.

You have the right to object or restrict your image being taken or used. If you would like to exercise this right, please contact us as set out below.

Communications

All communication with you, including in relation to updates to this privacy notice, will, where possible be made via the preferred method of communication that you have registered with us.

We will contact you in relation to events that we believe are relevant to you based upon their similar nature to your engagement with us. i.e. if you are a Law student, we may send you information about a Law related event.

If, at any stage, you are concerned about the content (e.g. unwanted marketing), frequency (too many) or method (change preference) of these communications, you can unsubscribe or update your preferences using the link which will be provided at the bottom of the relevant correspondence.

Should you unsubscribe from our marketing messages you will miss regular communications about our services and updates.

6. How personal data is stored securely by Northumbria University

We have implemented appropriate physical, technical, and organisational security measures designed to secure your personal data against accidental loss and unauthorised access, use, alteration, or disclosure. In addition, we limit access to personal data to those employees, agents, contractors, and other third parties that have a legitimate business need for such access.

All of our employees, contractors and volunteers with access to personal data receive mandatory data protection training and have a contractual responsibility to maintain confidentiality and access to your data is restricted to those members of staff who have a requirement to access it.
We utilise many different storage solutions and IT systems, some of which are outsourced to third party providers. For example, email accounts are provided by the Microsoft Live@Edu service.

Where processing takes place with an external third party, processing takes place under an appropriate agreement outlining their responsibilities to ensure that processing is compliant with the Data Protection legislation and verified to be secure.

Where applicable, any credit/debit card details provided will be stored in full compliance with PCI-DSS requirements.

7. Sharing your Personal Data with Third Parties

Where there is a legitimate or lawful (including statutory) reason to do so, we may disclose limited personal data to the following third parties:

- Companies acting as ‘data processors’ under contract, to deliver functions on our behalf (e.g. IT hosting, car parking, market research, recruitment and delivery support, etc).

Any other disclosures that may be required but not listed above will be in accordance with your rights and the requirements of the GDPR.

Parents and/or Guardians

Information held about you will not be disclosed to parents and/or guardians without your prior consent, unless your life or health is threatened. In these cases, if it is judged to be in your “vital interests”, we may contact your emergency contact. It is your responsibility to inform us of your emergency contact and keep it up to date.

8. Transfers to third party countries

If you are applying from, or if your course involves any period of study or employment with an organisation in a country outside of the European Economic Area (EEA) (known as ‘Third Party Countries’), we may transfer your data to them to support this.

Some of our partners, IT services or suppliers are also hosted by organisations either in third party countries, or who may back up their data to locations based in third party countries.

Where data is shared with third party countries, we ensure that these countries are either approved by the European Commission as having ‘adequate protection’ or we put in place ‘appropriate safeguards’ and contracts with these organisations, so as to maintain the security of the data and your rights under relevant Data Protection legislation.

There may also be limited sharing with organisations in third countries under specific exemptions, for example, with your explicit consent.

9. Automated individual decision making, including profiling

We use limited ‘Profiling’ (where information about you is used to tailor goods or services based on your interests, movement or records of your activities) for Learning Analytics. You will be asked if you wish to participate in the learning analytics process (by consent) to receive tailored advice about how you can enhance you learning. We may use your data (but not engage with you) as part of learning analytics under legitimate interests.

10. How long personal data held by Northumbria University
You data is held in compliance with Northumbria University’s retention schedule, which is published on our website. This can be summarised as:

When you make an enquiry to us, we will keep a record of it for 3 years so support any subsequent application. For unsuccessful applicants we will retain your data for 1 year following the completion of your application.

For student data. ‘Core Information’ (used to provide your transcripts, certificates, replacement certificates, validate your studies at any time in the future) is retained for 80 years, whilst other information will be disposed of 6 years after the end of our relationship (unless otherwise stated) for one of these reasons:

- To respond to any questions or complaints.
- To show that we treated you fairly.
- To maintain records according to rules that apply to us.

We may keep your data for longer than if required to do so for legal reasons, or for limited research or statistical purposes for which it will be anonymised. If we do, we will make sure that your privacy is protected and only use it for those purposes.

11. Your Rights under GDPR

Under the GDPR, you have a number of rights in relation to the processing of your personal information, each of which may apply to differing degrees’ dependent upon the nature of the processing and the legal basis for it. You have the right to:

- Be informed as to how we use your data (via this privacy notice)
- Request access (a copy) of the personal information that we hold about you.
- Correct inaccurate or incomplete data
- Request that we stop sending you direct marketing communications.

In certain circumstances, you may also have the right to:

- Ask to have certain data ‘erased by us.
- Request that we restrict certain processing of your personal data.
- Request that we provide any data you submitted to us electronically be returned to you or passed to a third party as a data file.
- Object to certain processing of your personal data by us

In some cases, there may be specific exemptions as to why we aren’t able to comply with some of the above. Where this is the case, we will explain the reasons why.

- For more information about any of the above please see the GDPR pages of our website.
- In order to exercise any of the above rights, please contact the Data Protection Officer (details below).
