

EL0429 Colloquium on British Culture module 2020/21

The Colloquium programme, specifically for our Incoming Exchange and Study Abroad students, includes a mix of independent learning and study visits to places such as Durham Cathedral, The Theatre Royal in Newcastle, Bowes Museum, The Lake District, Wallington Hall, Hadrian's Wall and Roman Fort and Castles at Warkworth, Dunstanburgh and Alnwick.

The aim of the module is;

- to study political, social, economic and cultural developments in the North of England from the early Middle Ages to the 20th century.
- To study the region as a microcosm of the country as a whole and as a distinctive area.
- To engage with issues surrounding the creation of regional identities.
- To engage with debates about the nature of the North and its relationship to the rest of the country.

Assessment is by assignment and is worth 20 UK credits upon successful completion.

PLEASE NOTE THE FEE REQUIREMENTS FOR THIS MODULE AS BELOW:

The supplementary fee for a Bilateral Exchange Programme's student who chooses to take the EL0429 Colloquium on British Culture Study Abroad module is currently £350 GBP, which is payable directly to Northumbria University after the start of teaching.

The EL0429 Colloquium on British Culture Study Abroad module is included as part of the Study Abroad Programme's student tuition fee structure and so there is no fee for Study Abroad students.
